

CONSTITUTION.

1. The name of the Society shall be 'The Massage Therapists Society'. The Massage Therapists Society consists of full members only. These will be Practitioners in the discipline of Massage.
2. The objectives of The Massage Therapists Society shall be the preservation of health by furthering the knowledge, practice and expertise in massage therapy by education, teaching, training and information sharing.
3. Membership of The Massage Therapists Society shall be open to individuals who hold any approved certified qualification in massage therapy.
4. The affairs of The Massage Therapists Society shall be administered by its members represented by an international co-ordinator.
5. All members shall pay to The Massage Therapists Society such minimum subscription as may be fixed from time to time by the co-ordinator. Payment is to be made on the due date for the period of up to one year.
6. Subscriptions shall pay for the running of the society.
7. Membership shall terminate:
 - i. Upon receipt by The Massage Therapists Society of written notice of resignation.
 - ii. On the annual subscription being unpaid for a period of two months from the due date.
 - iii. Any member in breach of the Constitution or The Massage Therapists Society code of conduct, ethics and practice may be expelled from the society.
8. The co-ordinator shall cause a record of proper accounting and auditing procedures to be followed.
9. The Massage Therapists Society shall have a code of conduct, ethics and practice which shall be binding to all members, home or abroad.
10. The Massage Therapists Society will maintain an office funded by the member subscriptions for:
 - The daily running of the Society.
 - A register of members.
11. The Massage Therapists Society shall provide and maintain a web site.